(who has returned to the place of his birth, Madagascar, to be with family)

Dearly beloved Broadway:

Throughout my journey I have made it a point not to miss any place. As a sojourner, I am called to go and leave places. Getting attached is a risk. But there was something about Chicago that nudged me to get attached, to take risks, to be vulnerable. When I think about Chicago, I think of quaint neighborhoods, lovely people, delicious food, love, and Broadway.

Broadway is where I knew I could land in God's fabulous embrace in Chicago. It did not matter where or how I was. Broken. Whole. Betrayed. Trusting. Terrified. Fearless. Worried. Hopeful. I knew one thing to be true. God calls me Beloved. My name is Beloved. That is the good news Broadway brought me without fail whenever I was there. It remains my lifeline to this day.

I thank the spirit of Broadway for reminding me that I can wash and be washed; that I can love and be loved; that I can heal and be healed.

You are blessed indeed to be able to worship in that lovely sanctuary today. I urge you to push forward in our common calling to lead lives of love unfettered by fear; to face what makes us broken; to love as Jesus loves.

We may not know one another all that well. But I know each and every one of you by one name - Beloved. And that's what must keep us going. All that we are is known to our God. And none of it is cause for shame or exclusion before God's love. We may feel lonely. But we are not alone. We may feel invisible. But we are not forgotten. We may feel rejected. But we are not forsaken. We are beloved. Broadway is beloved.

Let's hold one another in prayer. Let's abide in hope and grace in the midst of struggle. Let's feast on fearlessness to cast out violence in all its forms. Let's come alive to embrace the divine beauty that is within each and every one of us.

You are so beautiful where you are. You are such fabulous children of God - each and every one of you. And yes, we will all become citizens of God's kin-dom. That is who we are called to become.

That is the call I have chosen to live for through Broadway.

I give thanks for who we are and for all that we are becoming for God's sake.

Here's to more vulnerability, more intentionality, and MORE LIFE.

I love you with all that I am, my beloved Broadway.

Vernice's View

Church Within A Church Movement (CWACM) celebrates its 10-year anniversary this year! This movement began as a protest against the bigotry of the United Methodist Church in its exclusion of LGBTQ Christians. Broadway is a member church of this movement and I am currently one of the co-conveners.

I want to share some of our history, which describes as well Broadway's connection.

In 1996 "In All Things Charity" (IATC) was created as a movement after the 1996 General Conference of the UMC. At this time over 1200 UMC clergy in response to the denominations' stance against homosexuality created a "Statement of Conscience" which said that the signers were in support of a more inclusive church.

IATC came under the umbrella of Broadway United Methodist Church and hired Rev. Greg Dell as Executive Director after Greg was suspended by the UMC for performing a holy union at Broadway.

IATC's hope was that at the 2000 UMC Annual Conference the language of "Homosexuality is incompatible with Christian Teaching" would be removed from the Book of Discipline. It wasn't.

As a result a Clergy Alliance was formed at the Reconciling Ministries Network to create new networks to address issues of justice and healing around sexual orientation and the UMC. One of those networks was the "Professing Church". In February 2002 there was a founding meeting of the "Professing Church". It was at that meeting that RMN was asked to initiate a call to activate a lay/clergy movement under the title of "A Church Within A Church". In September 2002, under the leadership of Greg Dell and Mark Miller, the first two co-conveners, CWAC became an active, justice seeking, progressive movement with a vision to "BE church in a fully inclusive way."

I've been involved with CWACM for 5 years. And in that time I have truly seen the movement evolve into a welcoming community; one that is dedicated to addressing the intersections of oppressions. We have done two extraordinary ordinations; ordaining people who were excluded only because of sexual orientation or progressive theology. After several workshops on racism and national calls inviting many into the conversation, we adopted an anti-racism declaration and will begin racial identity caucusing this year. Using the teachings and ministry of Jesus Christ, we continue to reach out to invite people into a community that values radical hospitality; a community who uses tradition as a springboard to more; a community that is informed by the diversity in the room; a movement with an eye on the marginalized in the world.

I hope in this short background of who we are, you will also hear an invitation to our celebration on October 19th and 20th here in Chicago (see pg. 7). We kick it off with a poetry slam featuring Phenomenon, a queer poetess and activist whom Broadway is familiar with. (She was our MC this year at our Community dinner). She is exciting and dynamic and her poetry will change your life. We are invited to bring our own justice stories and poetry as well. That's Friday night and Friday morning we share in a service project at Wentworth Elementary School. Join us. Here is the schedule for that:

9-10 am	Reading to/with students in primary and literacy classrooms
10-11 am	Technology Support
11am-12 noon	Math Drills and Skill Building with targeted students
12-1 pm	Lunch w/the Principal
1-3 pm	School Beautification (Touch up Painting, Mural Painting & Furniture Re-purposing)

Broadway, we need you! I hope that you will consider joining us for all or a portion of this wonderful occasion. There will be panel discussions on transgender law, workshops on racism, and a beautiful "Black Tie" event where we award two great women with the Gil Caldwell Justice Award. If you have questions about the week-end see me or Lois. We can get you tickets or more information about ways you can be involved.

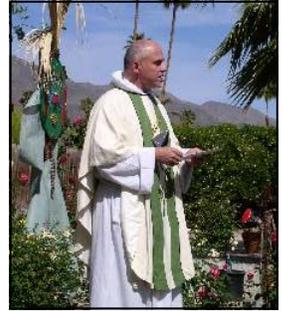

In Peace and Justice,

Vernice Rev. Vernice L. Thorn

Kevin's Korner

October 2012

Background note: Rev. Kevin A. Johnson and Mike Shear are BUMC members who moved to Palm Springs, California, in July 2002, to begin Bloom in the Desert Ministries, which is an interdenominational, inclusive Christian ministry including the Methodist (Broadway style) tradition. "Kevin's Korner" is a monthly column reporting on their progress so Broadway and Bloom stay well connected in ministry together. (www.bloominthedesert.org)

Being at Broadway for two Sundays in June was a wonderful beginning to my sabbatical, which ended September 15. Broadway is a lively and diverse congregation in a vibrant neighborhood. There are so many opportunities for ministry filled with sincere purpose and deep integrity...Wow! I was so very impressed with the youth outreach ministry. It gives witness to the solid values that make Broadway so precious.

Mike and I were deeply touched by your recognition of the ten years that have passed since you commissioned us to the ministry that is now blooming in southern California. You must always remember that you are the inspiration for our beginning and essential to our continuance. Thank you for being there for us.

During my sabbatical, it was great to work with Cathy Knight in the Church Within A Church Movement office that Broadway surrounds. CWACM will be celebrating 10 years of "Being the inclusive church" with special events in Chicago this month. Mike and I will be there for the festivities and hope to see many Broadway folks at the events.

That same weekend, I will be spending Sunday morning, October 21, with Broadway. That will be Bloom's annual Mission Minute Sunday. Our small congregation depends upon the support of our birthing congregation – that's you – as we continue. In the face of many obstacles a new church faces, when we have the backing of friends we can keep moving forward. You are our friends and we are so grateful for your financial contributions and personal visits. Please plan to help us reach a goal of $2,000.00 support from the Broadway Church.

Since this is the first time I've returned from a sabbatical, I trust that I'm well advised to follow the advice of my colleagues and sabbatical advisors. They said, "leave quickly and return slowly."

I was following their advice when I disappeared quickly last June – on Amtrak's Southwest Chief train to Chicago. It was a lovely trip and a great start on a journey I will always remember. Now that I am returning (slowly) to regular days, I've learned that Bloom did very well while I was away. That's been great to hear, because it means our 100-year vision is not farfetched.

As I return, the feelings I get remind me of the first days of school or a big trip. Something to keep in mind is that we have a set time until the next break. The policy of Bloom's Pastor Parish Team is that Bloom's sabbatical timing is every five years. That means, barring unforeseen circumstances we now begin a five-year journey together. So, coming back to Bloom after three months feels like I'm boarding a nice big cruise ship with plans and hopes for an upcoming wonderful time. It is exciting to dream and pray about where we are going.

Please keep us in your prayers and come visit whenever you can.

You may also go to Bloom's Web site and sign up for our weekly electronic newsletter, "BloomNotes."

Peace be with you,

Rev. Kev (and Mike Shear)

DANCE!

Hello Broadway family, You know those Sundays when the choir sings and you find yourself moving to the music? Well, if you can move, you can dance. On Sunday, October 7th we will once again be incorporating liturgical dance/movement into the worship service, and I'm inviting you to come and be a part of that.

So, you think you can't dance? Think again! Dance takes many forms and bodies move in many ways. Perhaps the music sets your toes a'tapping and your feet a'flying. Perhaps the music sets your hands a'clapping and your arms a'waving.

However you move, consider sharing that movement in worship as we pray and praise God with our bodies.

Rehearsals will be scheduled according to the needs of the group. If you are interested, please contact me (Carol McPherson) at carol.mcpherson@garrett.edu and once rehearsals are scheduled I'll let you know the time. If you can't join us on October 7th, but would like to participate another time, let me know! ~ Carol

CWAC 10TH ANNIVERSARY

Dear Broadway Family,

As you know, the Church Within A Church Movement holds its Tenth Anniversary event this month - 10 Years of Faith, Community and Justice - right here in Chicago.

Broadway's history is tied with the CWACM, as one of its co-founders is former BUMC pastor Rev. Greg Dell; one of the current Co-Conveners is Broadway's Pastor Rev. Vernice Thorn. The CWACM seeds were planted after the 2000 UMC General Conference as many who fought for full inclusion of LGBTQ persons felt - again - defeated by the institutional UMC. By 2002, CWACM was born, a lay & clergy movement to "be" the Church we dreamed of, prophetic activism alongside other movements for change that worked within the UM denomination.

In the last ten years, CWACM has become increasingly ecumenical as its theological and prophetic commitments continue to shape a movement for justice and possibility for those who thought there was no hope for a just church. Four women have been Ordained through the "Extraordinary Ordination" process, others continue to explore Ordination, and CWACM continues its commitments to anti-racism, ministry development, and providing progressive resources.

As a member congregation, Broadway is in a great position to help host the national guests who will be coming to honor the CWACM, its founders Greg Dell and Susan Morrison, its plant (and our partner) Bloom in the Desert Ministries, and its justice award winners. The events begin Friday, Oct. 19, and conclude Sunday, Oct. 21. Because he'll be here to celebrate with CWACM, Rev. Kevin Johnson will preach at Broadway on Sunday, October 21, as we lift up Bloom in the Desert as our October "Mission Minute."

While there are many events going on through the three days, there are several specific ways that Broadway folks can help support the event:

- open your home for Chicago guests who need a home stay (contact Teresa Seliga at 773.680.1339 if you can do that)
- provide transportation to/from Chicago airports for guests flying in (contact Teresa Seliga at 773.680.1339 if you can do that)
- help provide Chicago tours on Friday, 19 October (contact cathy knight at 773.248.3225 or email justchurch@cwac.us if you can do that)
- help with a south side/Chicago Public Schools service project on Friday, 19 October (contact Vernice at akatinyt@hotmail.com if you can do that)
- give a scholarship for someone to attend who might not otherwise be able to afford to attend (contact cathy knight at 773.248.3225 or email justchurch@cwac.us if you can do that)
- attend! And celebrate with CWACM! (register at <http://www.cwac.us/celebrating-ten-years-faith-community-justice>)

Many of us at Broadway will be involved in parallel justice ministries as we also participate in CWACM's Celebration (RMN is also hosting an event this weekend; Broadway itself is hosting its Annual World Market on Saturday, 20 October)...but we are hopeful that you'll be able to find a way to participate in this decade celebration for faith, community and justice.

Thanks, Broadway, for continuing to draw the circle wide as we work in community and coalition for every avenue of God's justice coming to life!

Ever committed to justice,

Rev. Lois McCullen Parr, Broadway Pastor and CWACM Member

Rev. Vernice Thorn, Broadway Pastor and CWACM Co-Convener

YOUTH LOUNGE OCTOBER UPDATE

THANK YOU, Tracy!

for your dedication, attention to detail, and organization of our Youth Lounge administrative and volunteer details. We appreciate the ways you've extended yourself on behalf of the youth and Broadway!

As you know, Tracy Nolan's time as our Youth Lounge Volunteer Coordinator has come to an end as she has begun her year of Clinical Pastoral Education in the Chaplain Ministry at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge. While Tracy will continue to serve Youth Lounge as a volunteer as she is able...we bid her farewell from the staff position and wish her well in the next step of her vocational ministry journey... and...

...the Transitional Leadership Team (TLT) for YL is in the process of receiving applicants for two part-time, stipend positions for 2013 for YL – and Ambassador/Outreach position (January-June), and an Administrative Assistant position (January-December). If you are interested in one of the positions, or know someone who is, please stop by the Broadway Office for a copy of the two job descriptions. The TLT is also discerning how to structure and form a more permanent leadership team for YL, a team which will take on some of tasks not covered by the two staff positions.

And...for the fourth quarter of 2012...

...Vernice will serve as the Volunteer Coordinator. Please contact Vernice with any questions about volunteering, new volunteers, and future info sessions. Vernice will be organizing our current and new volunteers to make sure each YL is covered; if you've ever been a volunteer, expect to hear from Vernice in the next three months! You may reach Vernice at akatinyt@hotmail.com.

...Lois will cover grant reporting requirements (for the UMC grant) and financial record-keeping, along with a few administrative tasks. You may reach Lois at gizhilois@yahoo.com.

Special Thanks to our generous monthly meal donations from Broadway members who have covered one meal a month for January-August 2012 – we appreciate your generosity!

Dale West & Lark Stone and Jim Bennett & Terry VandenHoek and their friend Jon Osborn

Those donations have come to an end, so we are asking other organizations and UMCs if they can pick up one meal a month. In the meantime, be on the look-out for food donations sheets for upcoming meals prepared by the YL Team.

In other news...

the "Safe Showers" cooperative that formed under the banner "Lakeview Hearts for Youth" (LHY) has been a great success, with contributions and volunteers from 14 separate organizations! As of this writing, the volunteer coordinator for LHY is determining whether we'll continue into the fall (though the Crib re-opens October 1).

Volunteer Sean Marquardt has been working with Vernice, Z, and Tracy to form a new Spirituality Group with some of our youth – that group will meet four times this fall. Early interviews with the youth show great interest!

Ways to get involved are ongoing & continuing...donate items, donate time – see Vernice or Lois. Youth Lounge continues to grow and shift as we keep our commitment to this "love work" for the young people who make themselves at home at Broadway on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of each month.

SIDS AWARENESS MONTH

October Is SIDS Awareness Month: One way to reduce the risk of SIDS

Few tragedies affect a family more than loss of a child. SIDS (sudden infant death syndrome) is the leading cause of death for infants from 1 month to 1 year old, claiming around 2,000 deaths each year in the United States. The lack of answers regarding its cause is especially frightening.

But the risk can be greatly reduced by following one highly recommended step: Place infants on their backs when they sleep.

This idea (the Back to Sleep campaign) began in 1992 when striking evidence emerged about the correlation between stomach sleeping and crib deaths. In the two decades since the American Academy of Pediatrics made its recommendation for supine (back) sleeping, the rate of SIDS has dropped by more than 50%.

Just the same, some remain reluctant to follow this sound advice. Parents, grandparents or caregivers may be concerned about a baby's choking or vomiting; however, there is no increased risk of this for healthy infants who sleep on their backs.

Others are afraid babies will develop a flat spot on the back of the head from spending too much time lying on their backs. This can happen, but it is easily treatable by changing a baby's position often and allowing more "tummy time" while awake. (Putting infants on their sides to sleep isn't good because they can roll over onto their stomachs.)

Other ways to reduce the risk of SIDS: Put a child to sleep in a crib only; avoid soft bedding materials; offer a baby a pacifier at bedtime; never give a young child honey.

Prayer: Everlasting God, be with those whose child dies suddenly as they struggle with anger and grief. Help me, too, God, to be truly present with these grieving parents. Amen.

STEPS FOR EQUALITY

Chapter 7: Compassion & Empathy

A 25 year old gay man from South Carolina tells this story: I think that my experience as a member of an oppressed group also helps me to empathize with other members of oppressed groups and to more readily see the subtle forms of oppression that exist in society. I can also help to speak about this oppression to typically resistant groups (heterosexual white men), because until I tell them that I am not like them, they assume that I am like them. That is another positive aspect of being gay and out. The strength & courage one develops from repeatedly coming out tends to bleed over into many other areas, including confronting prejudice in all forms. (p102)

The Book — A Positive View Of LGBTQ: Embracing Identity and Cultivating Well-Being by Ellen D.B. Riggle & Sharon S. Rostosky. About the Authors: Ellen D.B. Riggle, PhD, is a professor of women's studies and political science at the University of Kentucky. Sharon S. Rostosky, PhD, is a licensed psychologist and a professor of counseling psychology at the University of Kentucky.

HISTORICAL NOTE

Haven't we heard this before?

"Pledge reminder" (excerpt) from Church News, September 1921

Honor your own pledge. You made a pledge for Current Expenses of the Broadway Church and to the Centenary. Your honor requires a payment in full to date. Do it now. You can and it is positively needed. We planned the year according to your pledge. Honor it by payment.

You should not reduce your Centenary subscription at your own discretion. Cut down on other bills or expenses, but don't draw in on your pledge to God. Some field or missionary will suffer if you refuse to live up to your word and pledge, your note of obligation to God. October 1, 1921, closes the Conference year and your current expense pledge should be paid in full; your Centenary should be paid for 2 1/2 years, or half of your five-year pledge. Do it now.
